

HUM puts God's message in your heart language

If we listen closely to our lives, to the world we live in, we might hear a noise that reminds us that there's more to life than what we see. It is a sound that connects all of us and we're drawn to it. We're drawn even more to its source, our Creator. It can be understood in God's Message to Us. We call this sound: HUM

The new HUM Audio Bible App brings God's message to your mobile device, recorded in your heart language.
